The Three Things To Know

1. Gran Selezione

Located within one of Europe's most remarkable cypress groves at a high altitude in Chianti Classico, Villa Rosa produces Famiglia Cecchi's prized Gran Selezione wine.

2. Cecchi Family

The Cecchi family is committed to preserving the traditional style and legacy of the 65-year-old estate after acquiring in 2015.

3. Scientific Precision

Detailed soil analysis and attention to altitude guide vineyard management, allowing the estate to craft wines that are expressive of Castellina's highest-quality Sangiovese terroir.

Our Relationship

"Andrea and his family have over 125 years of winemaking history in the Chianti Classico region and their family name is amongst the most recognizable in Italian wine. We're honored to represent Famiglia Cecchi in the US."
