The Three Things To Know

1. Expansive Representation of Friuli

With 300 hectares across the renowned Grave (Borgo Tesis), Prosecco, Collio (Sant'Helena), and Colli Orientali (La Roncaia) appellations, Fantinel expertly and passionately shares the region's diverse winemaking areas and grape varieties with 90 countries worldwide.

2. A Focus on Indigenous

Fantinel crafts wines from indigenous varietals using 100% estate-grown fruit, reflecting the unique character of the land and its heritage.

3. 'A-Viticulture'

Fantinel embraces 'A-Viticulture,' a philosophy rooted in natural rhythms and respect for the vine. Their approach combines sustainable farming, minimal intervention, and ongoing research into soil health and vine clones.

Our Relationship

"I don't recall exactly how I met Marco Fantinel, but every day since has been memorable. He is incredibly dynamic in the market and a true ambassador for Friuli."

- Charles Lazzara, Volio Imports Founder & CEO
