The Three Things To Know

1. The Gates of Chianti Classico

Situated on the first hill of Chianti Classico, Famiglia Cecchi's Villa Cerna estate greets travelers as they journey from Siena into Castellina. It's from this defining location that the winery's wine "Primocolle" takes its name, meaning "first hill."

2. Cecchi Family

The Cecchi Family has owned Villa Cerna since 1962, a pivotal time for Chianti Classico. Over the years, they have revitalized the vineyards and studied the estate's ideal clones and microclimates, making the most of its ideal sun exposure.

3. A Focus on Hospitality

Villa Cerna represents Famiglia Cecchi's dedication to hospitality. At its restaurant, Foresteria, guests can enjoy memorable dining experiences surrounded by striking architecture, sweeping vineyard views, and exceptional wines.

Our Relationship

"Andrea and his family have over 125 years of winemaking history in the Chianti Classico region and their family name is amongst the most recognizable in Italian wine. We're honored to represent Famiglia Cecchi in the US."
